

Erasmus+ Teaching Staff
at Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences
From 21st to 24th November 2023

Join us as guest lecturer!

Application deadline: 1 October

The Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences (AUAS) / Faculty of Business and Economics (FBE) proudly presents its annual International Week as part of the AUAS Think Global Festival. We would like to remind you that it is still possible for your lecturers to register until 1 October.

Topic: Global Citizenship and Engagement

This theme serves as a guiding principle for all our teaching and applied research and the interaction with our local community. We invite you to share your knowledge and expertise on this topic. And join in the conversation on how to achieve global citizenship and engagement for our students and staff.

We hope you can join us as guest lecturer and teach our students, meet our teaching and research staff and interact with lecturers from our partner universities.

Programme

Faculty Day | Tuesday 21 November: you will join a day of professional development. A great opportunity to share global knowledge, best practices and skills and network with international colleagues and colleagues from Amsterdam.

During this day we will also present to you our Erasmus+ Generation Blockchain project and provide you with an opportunity to learn about our freely accessible materials for students & our Generation Blockchain Online Course in which we can ensure that graduates are better placed to enter into the ever changing, blockchain enabled working world! www.generationblockchain.eu

Student Days | Wednesday 22 – 24 November: you will teach our second year students of Amsterdam School of International Business (AMSIB) and the departments of Finance and Control, Marketing Sales and Trade, Business Administration, Human Resource Management and Part Time Academy

Included: daily lunch, dinner on 21 November and social programme on Friday 24 November

Topic to present

Please register via our application form or through the button below. As part of the registration we also ask you to provide a video pitch in which you introduce yourself and propose your session. We will select the proposals on the basis of the most appropriate link to our international week topic Global Citizenship and Engagement, level of the student audience and English proficiency.

If you join us under Erasmus+ funding, the requirements of minimum 8 hours teaching will be applied.

What to expect?

- Audience: our students are second year business students from different programmes. Age around 19-20 years, some are in international programmes, some are in Dutch programmes, none are legal experts or tech experts.
- Topic: Global Citizenship and Engagement.
- You offer a session of about 50 minutes to the students. You would repeat the same session for different classes.
- We work in classes which at maximum hold 30 students, so interaction is possible and something students are used to.
- The students can themselves register which sessions they would like to follow. So there is some competition between the sessions, and an attractive promotional text would help to get your class full.
- We use two locations. The main location is our Business Campus: Fraijlemaborg 133, Amsterdam. The second location is Wibauthuis: Wibautstraat 3-B, Amsterdam
