

Invitation to the Erasmus International Week on "Artificial Intelligence" at LIUC -The Business University (Italy)

Dear colleagues,

We are pleased to invite you to the Erasmus International Week, which will be held at Università Carlo Cattaneo-LIUC from 19th to 23rd May 2025.

This year's theme is "Artificial Intelligence: Innovation and Future," a highly relevant and engaging topic for the academic and professional world. The event is targeted principally at colleagues working at International Relations Offices.

During this week, we will have the opportunity to offer a series of events, seminars, and workshops focused on artificial intelligence (AI).

It will be an opportunity to discuss and share best practices, develop new collaborations, and develop knowledge in a stimulating and multicultural environment.

The week's program will include:

- Introductory lectures on the AI by LIUC teachers
- Group work sessions aimed at practical examples applicable to our daily work
- Networking sessions to foster collaboration among participants
- Cultural visits and city tours
- Social events to promote integration among participants

Registration/participation fee: EUR 100.

- The registration fee is a contribution to cover part of the administrative costs, welcome happy hour and a farewell dinner
- Registration/participation fee is not refundable even if you do not participate in all programs.
- Accepted participants will be informed about bank details and deadline for payment later.
- Accommodation and travel expenses to and in Castellanza must be covered by participants.

In order to have a real international group, we will limit the participation to this week to 1-2 participants per country. The group will be composed by 8 up to a maximum of 15 participants, so hurry up to secure your place!

If you come from one of our partner universities within the Erasmus+ programme, you can ask for funding to the International Office of your University. The Erasmus+ funds for staff training will cover travel, meals and accommodation expenses.

Hotel: we suggest to book the room at the HOTEL PALACE LEGNANO (<https://www.palacehotellegnano.com/>) it is very closed to the University.

When you book you can mention that you are a LIUC professor to have a discount.

We are confident that your participation will greatly enrich the event and provide valuable opportunities to establish new relationships and collaborations in the international context.
