

“CONCORSO” FOR ADMISSION AT THE PhD PROGRAM
IN MANAGEMENT, FINANCE AND ACCOUNTING
ADDITIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS – XXXIX CYCLE

“Concorso” call published in the Official Gazette, 4th special series, n. 85 of November 7th, 2023

MINUTES N. 1

On the 5th of December, 2023, from 11:00 am to 12:30 pm, via Microsoft Teams the Selection Committee of the “Concorso” for admission onto the PhD programme in "Management, Finance and Accounting - XXXIX cycle – Additional scholarships" (hereinafter referred to as "the programme") appointed by the Rectoral Decree n. 1108 of November 13th, 2023, held its first meetings of the “Concorso” to which it applied the legislative provisions on public “Concorsi”.

The Selection Committee was composed as follows:

- Prof. Alessandro Creazza, Active President,
- Prof. Emanuela Foglia, Active Member,
- Prof. Valentina Lazzarotti, Active Member.
- Prof. Raffaella Manzini, Active Member,
- Prof. Andrea Venegoni, Active Member,

The Committee declared the absence of incompatibility, according to the article 51 of the Civil Procedure Code and article 7 of Presidential Decree 62/2013, of among the members and between them and the applicants.

The President stated that -by the deadline indicated in the Call – 22 applications had been received (see Attachment n. 1).

The Committee verified all the requirements, pursuant to articles 5 and 6, and excluded from the evaluation all the 13 incomplete/invalid applications (see Attachment n. 2).

The Committee noted that, pursuant to article 7, the Call was published in the Official Gazette, 4th special series, n. 85 of November 7th, 2023, and that the three criteria to be eligible for the PhD Program are defined according to the following profiles:

- a) having the necessary knowledge and expertise on the Program's topics;
- b) aptitude for scientific research and coherence between scientific background and PhD Program main subjects, the originality and rigor of the research project presented
- c) competence in discussing and interpreting phenomena in the economic, managerial, financial or engineering fields, also expressed in quantitative form, as well as the linguistic competence necessary to participate profitably in the activities of the doctoral Program

Criterion a) is assessed by considering the university career of the applicant, as well as any other qualifications or aspects of their personal CV useful to demonstrate their skills and knowledge.

Criterion b) is assessed based on of publications, participation in projects / research groups, the results of internationally recognized tests (such as the GRE or the GMAT), if taken, the preparation of a Statement of Purpose that presents the candidate's research interests and to the paper illustrative of the development of a doctoral research topic on an argument of the candidate's choice.

Criterion c) is assessed based on an oral test, that may be conducted in English.

According to the Call, the Committee stated that, given an overall score of 45 points, the specific score for each profile is the following:

- criterion a): up to a maximum of 10 points;
- criterion b): up to a maximum of 20 points;
- criterion c): up to a maximum of 15 points

Applicants are deemed eligible for admission to the Program if they achieve an overall score of at least 30/45 points and provided that the score for each criterion is at least 2/3 of the total marks, i.e. 7 for criterion a), 14 for criterion b), 10 for criterion c).

With regard to the profile a), the Committee allocated the available 10 points by using the following criteria:

- Education career (e.g. graduation score)
- Consistency of the master degree's topic with respect to the PhD Program
- Postgraduate education and professional experience
- Recommendation letters

With regard to the profile b), the Committee allocated the available 20 points by using the following criteria:

- Statement of Purpose (SOP), in terms of contents and structure
- Internationally recognised tests
- Publications and participation in research projects/networks
- Doctoral research proposal research topic on an argument of the candidate's choice, considering both the contents and methodological structure

With regard to the profile c), the Committee will evaluate the ability in discussing and interpreting economic financial or managerial engineering phenomena, as well as the language proficiency showed during the interview.

After careful reading and analysis of the curricula, certifications and additional information reported in the application form of each candidate, the Committee selected the following candidates to be admitted to the interview:
